

Form CC 375M

PETITION FOR PERSONAL PROTECTION ORDER
AGAINST A MINOR
(DOMESTIC RELATIONSHIP)

Use this form if the person you want restrained is less than 18 but at least 10 years of age and:

1) if you live with or have lived with the person you want restrained and that person is not your unemancipated minor child;

or

2) if you and the person you want restrained have a child in common even if you were never married to one another or never lived together;

or

3) if you and the person you want restrained have or had a dating relationship.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING "PETITION FOR PERSONAL PROTECTION ORDER AGAINST A MINOR"

Please print neatly. Press firmly because you are printing on five copies.

By filling in this form, you are asking for a personal protection order that tells the minor respondent not to do certain things you don't want him or her to do. If you are in immediate danger, you should ask the judge for an "ex parte" order, which can be issued without waiting for a hearing.

Items A through J must be completed before your petition can be filed with the court. Please read the instructions for each item. Then fill in the correct information for that item on the form.

A Write your name, address, and telephone number in the "Petitioner" box. If you are under 18 years of age, write in your age. Write the name, address, telephone number, and date of birth or age of the person you want restrained in the "Respondent" box. If you want your address and telephone number to be kept from the other party, do not write your address here. Put in the address of a relative or friend or a post office box where the court can contact you.

B - D Check the boxes that best describe your relationship with the respondent.

E Check whether there is a pending case between you and the respondent. Examples of a case are: support, paternity, child support, other personal protection actions, etc. If there is a pending case, fill in the case number, the name of the court, the county, and the state or province where the action was filed, and the name of the judge.

Check whether there are any court orders or judgments between you and the respondent. Examples of orders are parenting time (visitation) orders, custody orders, other personal protection orders, etc. If there are other court orders or judgments, fill in the case number, the name of the court, the county, and the state or province where the order or judgment was entered, and the name of the judge that signed the order.

F Explain in as much detail as possible why you are asking for a personal protection order. Describe what has happened or what has been threatened so the judge has enough facts to decide if a personal protection order should be signed. Include dates and places. Write on a separate sheet of paper and attach it to this form.

G Check only those boxes you need because you must be able to convince the judge you need all the protection you are requesting. On the lines after each item you check, fill in the requested information such as names, addresses, or specific types of activity you do not want allowed. Check item "6.b" only if you want to keep the other party from entering onto property other than your home (for example, school, work, etc.). Check item "6.e" only if there have been two or more acts of harassment. If you want the court to order that any records that exist which contain information about yourself or your minor children be kept confidential, state that in box "6.i." Examples of such records are school reports that the respondent would normally have access to.

H An "ex parte order" means you do not have to let the respondent know in advance that you are asking the court for an order and you do not have to wait for a court hearing to get the order. Check the box for an "ex parte order" if you believe the other party might hurt you or threaten you if he or she found out you were getting a personal protection order.

If you do not need to check the "ex parte" box, you must have a court hearing. Fill out form CC 381.

I If you are under 18 years old, you may need an adult (called a "next friend") to petition for you. Check this box if you have a next friend helping you file this form, and have the next friend sign the petition.

J Write in today's date and sign the form. Hand the form to the county clerk. The clerk will fill in the rest of the information and will give you your copies.

NOTE: There are only five copies of this form. You will need to make extra copies of this form for each parent, guardian, or custodian of the respondent.

You must read the booklet "Instructions for Personal Protection Orders" for directions on the legal process.

Petitioner's name:	V	Respondent's name:
--------------------	---	--------------------

1. Petitioner's request for an ex parte personal protection order is denied for the following reasons:
- a. The petition fails to clearly establish by specific facts and there is not reasonable cause to believe that the petitioner is entitled to a personal protection order, per MCL 600.2950.
 - b. The petition fails to clearly establish that the petitioner is being stalked as defined in MCL 600.2950a, MCL 750.441h and MCL 750.411i.
 - c. The petition fails to clearly establish by specific facts two or more acts that constitute stalking behavior.
 - d. The petition fails to clearly establish reasonable cause to believe that a serious or irreparable injury will occur if this petition is not granted immediately and without notice to the respondent.
 - e. Another PPO exists and a hearing with both parties present is necessary.
 - f. This problem appears to relate to custody and/or parenting time issue and both parties need to be present to determine if a PPO should issue and/or if the custody and/or parenting time order should be modified.
 - g. The petitioner is a prisoner as defined under MCL 600.2950a(32)(e).
 - h. A spousal injunction or mutual restraining order is already in place or should be filed in the divorce action.
 - i. A PPO is not a substitute for an order for exclusive use of the marital home.
 - j. A PPO is not a substitute for an eviction proceeding.
 - k. Other _____

2. You have the right to request a hearing as provided by MCR 3.705. You may notice your petition if denied for hearing before the Judge. If you do not request a hearing within 21 days of entry of the order denying your request for an ex parte PPO, then the court's denial of the PPO will become final, MCR 3.705(A)(5).
3. You must complete the Notice of Hearing form. The Notice of Hearing and Petition must be served upon the Respondent at least 24 hours in advance of the hearing. A proof of service must be immediately filed with the court or brought with you to hearing.

ORDER OF DENIAL

In accordance with MCR 3.705(A)(5) the PPO is denied.
